Chapter 1 by Vishnu Matta

We all know tales of mystery and tales of terror. We also know of death. Death is mankind's enemy and some madmen kill for a kick. Many kill for money. Some kill for reasons unknown. This is a story of for reasons unknown. But all secrets must be untold, and reveal a treasure above god and heaven.

Chapter 2 by Samarjit Aulakh

There was a man that was walking down the street in a black coat and black jeans. He had something under his jacket. What was this thing? He came toward me and I started to walk away. But he just started to walk a little fast so I ran and then "BOOM". I was somewhere no one has ever been < or everyone has been, HEAVEN. Tah-dah. Then I saw people come over and tell me to hurry up you are missing out on things. Then they ran me over and I fell, into nothingness. It was dark, so dark you couldn't even see your hands. Then I popped back into the world as if nothing happened right where I died. But still walking with the guy gone. What has Happened!!!!!!
